

Marissa Kaprow, CPA

Director

marissa.kaprow@saltmarshadvisors.com

Marissa is a director with experience across audit and assurance services. She began her audit career in 2013 as an intern with Ruggiero, Martinez & Norton and advanced to principal before the firm's merger with Saltmarsh in 2024. Her primary areas of experience include providing audit and assurance services across a variety of industries.

Marissa specializes in providing audit services to the construction industry, serving small and mid-size general contractors and subcontractors. She also works with the tax department assisting her audit clients with tax planning due to her background in working on tax returns for construction, medical, rental and professional services. Her prior experience in administrative roles within family-owned businesses gives her a practical perspective and the ability to connect with clients as an accountant and a business advisor.
